

Privacy Statement for California Consumers

Last updated: June 26, 2020

Why?

The California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (“CCPA”) gives California residents the right to know what personal information CA-Mission Street Limited Partnership (“Owner”), together with its subsidiaries and affiliates, collects and uses about them, including whether it is being sold or disclosed to third parties. Owner does not sell or disclose personal information to third parties without a business agreement. The CCPA also grants certain rights to California residents, including the right to delete their personal information (subject to certain exceptions) and the right to prevent Owner from selling their personal information. Companies are also prohibited from retaliating or discriminating against consumers for exercising their rights under the CCPA.

All companies need to collect and share consumers’ personal information for everyday business purposes, marketing, and maintenance of the safety, security, and integrity of their websites and other assets, among other reasons. This Privacy Statement for California Consumers (“Privacy Statement”) provides the information required under the CCPA and applies to both Owner’s online and offline activities.
